

Inscription on the Crimean War Memorial

BOMARSAND
ALMA
BALAKLAVA
INKERMAN
SWEABORG
TCHERAYA
SEBASTOPOL

---

Major-General Sir John Campbell
Colonel W Trevelyan
Lieutenant-Colonel E S T Swyny
Lieutenant-Colonel L B Tyler
Captain T B Foster
Lieutenant Thomas Molyneux Graves
Major W Swinton

---

William Shell, Seaman (first who fell in the war)
George Roberts, Corporal, 21st Fusiliers
Robert Warren, Private, 21st Fusiliers
Edward Harris, Private, Royal Artillery

---

Erected by the Citizens of Bath,
In honour under God,
Of those heroic Men, especially
Their Fellow-Citizens and Friends here recorded,
Who lay down their lives
In the campaigns of 1854-5,
Triumphantly achieved
For the Liberties of Europe

---

“There is a time to die.” Eccles.iii.2.