Organ Concert: A Tale of Two Cities - Stephen Farr - Friday 7th October at 6.30pm

This evening's programme, a Tale of Two Cities, explores some of the extraordinary heritage of organ music to emerge from London and Paris. It features works by Judith Bingham 'Vanished London Churches' and French music by Couperin, Böely and Langlais's dramatic Trois Paraphrases Gregoriennes. Stephen Farr has an impressive reputation as one of the leading organ recitalists of his generation, with an extensive discography to his credit; recent and pending releases have included J S Bach's Clavierübung 3, Orgelbüchlein, and Chorale Partitas (part of a projected recording of the complete organ works), the complete organ works of James Macmillan, a new commission by Francis Grier, music from the 17th century English repertoire, works by Judith Bingham, and the complete organ works of Kenneth Leighton (described as a 'towering triumph' by The Guardian).

Tickets £7.50 (unreserved) from Bath Box Office www.bathboxoffice.org.uk
Tel: 01225 463362.

REMEMBRANCE DAY CONCERT

An audience member wrote after the Remembrance concert in 2021: I was moved to tears for most of the remembrance concert and genuinely don't think I've heard them sing anything as technically difficult ... it was all outstanding. This year we remember and celebrate Ralph Vaughan Williams' enormous contribution to church music in the 150th anniversary of his death. The programme will open with his moving setting of words by George Herbert in the Five Mystical Songs (solo baritone Mike Entwisle). Herbert Howells was inspired by Vaughan Williams's music and Howells' emotional and powerful unaccompanied Requiem, written tragically after his son, Michael, died aged 9, will be sung alongside his intense and beautiful anthem 'Take him earth for cherishing' (written on the death of President Kennedy in 1963). As the tragedy of war continues in Ukraine, John Rutter's evocative setting of A Prayer for Ukraine and two other contemporary works Lux aeterna by Abbey Lay Clerk James Millichap and Lord, you have been my dwelling place by the Director of Music Huw Williams renew our prayers for peace and reconciliation. Featuring the Abbey Boys, Girls, Lay Clerks and the Chamber Choir. Tickets £22, £17 and £10 from Bath Box Office (16s and under half price).

A Christmas Celebration

With popular favourites, and some unexpected items, there will be carols for the congregation to join in, together with readings. This will be a memorable and colourful evening full of fun and style. This carol concert with a variety of music from all styles features the youngest Abbey Choir, the Melody Makers, and the Boys Choir, the Girls Choir and the Lay Clerks.

Tickets from Bath Box Office: £22, £17 and £10 (16s and under half price)

Saturday 17 December at 7pm

Baroque Christmas music at Bath Abbey will be full of charming and elegant repertoire to match the poise and style of the Georgian city. With seasonal and uplifting music by J. S. Bach (Gloria in excelsis Deo, Et in terra pax, Jauchzet frolocket and Komm, Jesu komm) and a stylish and dance-like Magnificat by Buxtehude, there will also be music by Purcell (O sing unto the Lord, Rejoice in the Lord) and Monteverdi. The Abbey Girls and Lay Clerks perform alongside baroque specialists Rejouissance.

Tickets from Bath Box Office: £22, £17 and £10 (16s and under half price).
